

Irish Postmasters.—Congratulations were sent from a meeting of Irish Head Postmasters, held in the Gresham Hotel on Saturday, to Mr. J. Lockington on his promotion to the Postmastership of Colchester. Mr. J. Frizelle, Postmaster, Portadown, was elected president, and Mr. R. A. Abbot, Postmaster, Curragh Camp, hon. secretary, for the ensuing year.

Licence Transfers.—On applications by Mr. G. Byrne, Jun., Mr. Swifte, in the Southern Police Court yesterday granted an interim transfer of the licence of the premises, Harry street, from the name of the late Mr. G. Mooney to the name of Mr. G. Tyson, "Stag's Head"; and Mr. Macinerney, in the Northern Court, granted similar transfers in the cases of Messrs. Mooney's premises in Parnell street and Abbey street. The police consented in each case.

Dr. Walsh, of Midleton who was recently elected as medical officer of Slieve-roagh (Ballyvourney) in succession to the late Dr. Lynch, and in connection with which contest a heated controversy arose on the necessity of appointing an Irish-speaking candidate—was on Saturday elected workhouse medical officer of Midleton in the room of the late Dr. Lawton by a majority of 2, the other candidates being Dr. J. Power, Castlemartyr, and Dr. R. Fitzgerald, Midleton. This will mean a fresh vacancy, and probably another contest for the Ballyvourney position, which is in the gift of the Macroom Board of
